23a Roadknight Street sold earlier this year. Now it's 23's turn. 23 Roadknight Street 2.0 offers a stylish Hamptons inspired home consisting of three spacious bedrooms and two bathrooms with a floorplan that flows beautifully from entry through to the rear deck overlooking the open backyard. Perfectly suited to families, retirees or investors looking to capitalise on the AirBnB market. Offering a neutral colour palette throughout with quality finishes and fixtures including high ceilings, zoned ducted heating and cooling, and custom cabinetry installed by Reality Kitchen's Adam Gaylard. The spacious open plan living, kitchen and dining area is perfectly appointed to enjoy time with friends and family. Featuring Westinghouse appliances, walk in pantry and island bench with an abundance of cabinetry sure to impress. The location is ideal for those who like to leave the car at home as the train station is just down the road taking you through to Warrnambool and Melbourne with stops at Geelong, Colac, Camperdown and Winchelsea in between. Walk to an array of local entertainment and amenities including the Birregurra Primary School, kindergarten, dance school, golf course, General Store, pub, pharmacy, boutique shops and Yield restaurant to name a few. This small town has a lot to offer, you have everything you need for an enjoyable and convenient lifestyle at your fingertips!
