Auction

Auction Location: On-Site Nestled in the heart of Virginia, 23 St Vincents Road unveils a charming Queenslander residence that seamlessly combines classic design with modern comforts. As you approach, the distinctive architecture captures your attention, adorned with intricate decorative details that echo a bygone era. Inside, the warmth of timber floorboards welcomes you, creating a timeless ambiance that resonates throughout the home. Built in a traditional style, the property retains many of its original features with adored VJ walls and decorative ceilings. A spacious central living room forms the heart of the home and flows directly through to the adjoining kitchen and dining room. The kitchen offers plenty of smart storage options and preparation space and while perfect as is, lends scope to update and add your own personal style to create your ultimate culinary haven. To the rear, French doors open out to a covered deck, overlooking a spacious and private backyard. It provides an ideal place to relax or entertain family and friends, for year-round outdoor enjoyment. Comfortable accommodation comprises three bedrooms, each exuding its own unique character. A versatile sleepout/ multipurpose room adds flexibility to the living spaces and could be utilised as a study, teen retreat, playroom or fourth bedroom. A light filled bathroom with separate bathtub services the home. Additional features incorporate, air-conditioning throughout, freshly painted inside and out just two years ago, ample storage including a workshop area on the lower level that caters to practical needs ensuring a clutter-free living environment. The property is fully fenced for privacy and security creating a safe haven for play and tidy landscaped gardens surround the home contributing to its visual appeal. It also features a rainwater tank, embracing sustainable living practices. Conveniently located close to shops and transport, 23 St Vincents Road offers more than just a residence—it provides a lifestyle immersed in the best of Queensland living. With its classic design, thoughtful features, and modern comforts, this home stands as a testament to the enduring charm of timeless architecture blended with contemporary convenience.
