A very much loved property located in a prime Buderim location, on a flat 971m² block. Built approximately 1970 this property has all the attributes of a fantastic opportunity to purchase in a popular sought after leafy street. Consisting of three bedrooms, one large bathroom, two living areas, sunroom with vergola, large double car garage, and extra carport. The block is flat with a large garden shed. A swimming pool would be easily accommodated on the block. The property has been refreshed and is available to you right now with an advantage of a pest and building inspection report. Easy walkable distance main street of Buderim offering all amenities a family could wish for from popular restaurants and cafes to boutiques, health services and a mainstream supermarket.
