AUCTION | Fiona Hellams

Situated on a quiet wide street in tightly-held Wareemba, just minutes to waterfront parklands, popular Abbotsford Public School and the heart of Five Dock (including the future Metro), this surprisingly spacious semi offers the perfect lifestyle for a growing family. The home was previously extended to the rear featuring a versatile retreat ideal for parents or teenagers, blends original details with tasteful updates and flows to a sundrenched northeast courtyard area for entertaining alfresco. The property comes complete with generous attic storage and off-street parking, while the sought-after location really has everything you need within walking distance. • Character high ornate ceilings, polished floorboards • Modern kitchen/casual meals and formal dining room • Good sized living area and three spacious bedrooms • Optional parents' or teenage retreat with bathroom • Private sunny garden area with courtyard and pergola • Pull down ladder to attic storage, off-street parking
