Positioned just moments from both city and bay, this c1948 residence has been beautifully remodelled to offer a 585.3sqm slice within the preferred pocket of thriving South Plympton. The landscaped front yard grants the perfect place to park and play, where a flourishing row of agapanthus and vine covered arbour precedes a mid-century façade, leading to over 263sqm of internal living wonderfully restored over the years. Upon entry, you are directed to a three bedroom wing - all designed over generous quarters to include built-in robes, soft carpets underfoot and central access to a modern main bathroom and convenient separate toilet. Emerging in the spacious living and dining zone upon polished timber floorboards, you can instantly imagine yourself curled up with a great novel or enjoying a Netflix marathon with loved ones. A muted neutral palette continues through the feature archway to adjoin a stylishly renovated galley kitchen, combining timeless deluxe stone benchtops, subway tiling and sleek cabinetry with high-quality stainless steel gas cooktop, under bench electric oven, rangehood and dishwasher. Flowing through to a huge rumpus room that's opened up by lofty pitched ceilings, floating floors and accessible from the double garage, you'll love the versatility this space offers to configure as a second living space, fitness centre, home office or business studio - also serviced by a second bathroom with spa bath. Providing a connection to outdoor entertaining, sliding doors open to reveal a beautiful backyard, acting as an inner-suburban haven thanks to lush grass, easy-care garden beds and a wealth of undercover verandah space.
