Privacy is seldom found in modern-day suburbia, but this stunning family home has that plus more. Located on the high side of this elevated street, the home captures exclusive views and privacy from your neighbours without the price tag and inconvenience of rural living. Comprising of three large bedrooms, the master located at the front of the home offers a spacious walk-in wardrobe, and a practical ensuite with a single vanity and shower. The remaining two bedrooms have the creature comforts you need, offering large built-in wardrobes, and are central to the home's family bathroom. The large open plan living is central and has plenty of room for a big TV, whilst the design incorporates a large window capturing natural light throughout the day, making this the ideal location for the family to relax and spend some quality time together. The kitchen is practical and ideal for the family chef to cook up a storm and overlooks both the home's balcony and dining area. Offering an expansive bench space and a large amount of storage options no recipe will be too hard to pull off here. Whether you are a green thumb who loves an extravagant garden or someone who likes a small grassed and paved area, the choice is yours with this low-maintenance yard being a blank canvas. Other notable features include ducted heating and cooling, a double lock up garage, and a home office.
