This hidden gem is situated close to public transport and convenience stores so you can leave the car at home. Perfect for first home owners or investors. A high enclosed colorbond fence gives this property a sense of privacy and security. This well constructed solid brick and tile home has a large flat block great for the kids to play with low maintenance gardens. A double lock up garage/shed is located conveniently at the end of the long driveway. Around the side of the house is a large secure undercover entertainment area running the full length of the house allowing for entertaining in private or alternatively can be used for added storage. Inside you will find 3 bedrooms, main with air-conditioning, a renovated bathroom with bathtub, modern kitchen and dining area all with easy care flooring. Situated close to the M1 providing quick access to Brisbane which is only 22km away and the Gold Coast.
