

230 Mons School Road, Buderim, Qld 4556

House For Sale

Wednesday, 20 March 2024

230 Mons School Road, Buderim, Qld 4556

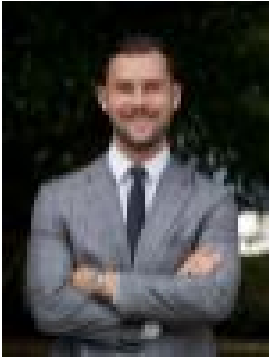

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 899 m2

Type: House

Brodie Rodgers
0406501684

Jake Loiero
0448000933

Offers Over $1,100,000

Nestled in a serene and convenient nook of Buderim, this expansive home is situated on a generous 899m² block, moments away from the charming Buderim Village, esteemed private schools, the Bruce Highway, and just a 10-minute drive from the vibrant heart of Maroochydore CBD. Positioned on a ridge to allow for a natural flow of refreshing easterly breezes and picturesque sunsets, the home adds to its charm with a flat, user-friendly block enveloped by the breathtaking beauty of a lush bush setting. This four-bedroom home offers peaceful living combined with convenience. Upon stepping inside, the home welcomes you with its warm, neutral palette and a layout that exudes family-friendly charm, making it an ideal haven for couples or families eager to secure a slice of Buderim's sought-after property market. At the core of this inviting abode is the kitchen, a true culinary hub equipped with stainless steel appliances. Seamlessly merging with the primary living area, it creates an ideal setting for mealtime gatherings and effortless entertaining. Adjacent to the dining space, a spacious outdoor alfresco area unfolds as a tranquil retreat, offering the perfect backdrop for social gatherings or quiet mornings immersed in the natural tranquillity of the adjoining bush reserve. The master suite offers comfort, featuring a walk-in robe and an ensuite, with direct access to a secluded patio for a quiet outdoor space. The property's allure is further enhanced by its intimate connection to nature, with small walking paths meandering through the backyard into the bushland, dotted with a variety of fruit trees, inviting exploration and adventure. 230 Mons School Road represents a unique blend of modern living, privacy, and serene natural beauty, without sacrificing convenience. This home is not just a residence but a retreat that needs to be experienced. For more information or to schedule a personal tour, please contact Brodie Rodgers at your earliest convenience. Discover the perfect balance of tranquillity and easy access to amenities - a rare find in today's market.