From the moment you step foot inside this gorgeous home, you get a sense of belonging with the bright, modern space and stunning colour scheme plus generous outdoor living spaces. This stylish 1950s residence combines original character with contemporary features; showcasing polished floorboards, plush bedroom carpets, and double-glazed windows for comfort. Comprising three bedrooms, two of which feature built-in wardrobes, the home includes two tiled bathrooms, one of which is combined with the laundry. The living room offers stunning views of the Derwent River, Mount Wellington, and the city, which can also be seen from the third bedroom. A separate dining room flows from the living area and is adjacent to the galley style kitchen with double oven. There is a reverse cycle Daikin heat pump to take care of the temperature and two feature fire places which may be reinstated for those who enjoy the ambience of a flame. Enjoy the outdoor living spaces with under cover options at both the front and rear of the property, plus there is decking in the back yard to sit and enjoy the sunshine. A double garage provides secure parking and there is additional space for extra off street parking available. On bus route and a short commute to the conveniences of Shoreline and Glebe Hill Shopping Centres, this stunning home is certain to impress even the most discerning of buyers. Call today.
