Surprise is the operative word for this super home with 180 degree views looking over the North Esk River basin to UTAS Stadium and Launceston. Currently being operated as a very successful AIR BNB, the home is highlighted by superbly updated kitchen and bathrooms and huge spacious rooms. The modern open plan will appeal with a deck straight off the dining area offering those views and the opportunity to entertain. All the bedrooms offer space, large built-in robes, the main with an ensuite. The home is immaculate and is maintained by professional cleaners and it's a case of "move right in" and enjoy the benefits. Added to that spaciousness upstairs, you have internal access to under the home where we have 2/3 car garage plus further room to create a rumpus room, workshop, office, whatever your needs. A double carport complements the garage offering multi vehicle accommodation. This home will suit a range of buyers from families to investors to the work from home aspirant.
