Experience modern apartment living at its finest in this thoughtfully designed two-bedroom apartment. Discover a tranquil oasis where verdant landscaping intertwines with open-air walkways that lead to your own private entry. Relax and unwind in this serene setting, where nature and luxury meet in perfect harmony. Located on level 23 of the iconic landmark building "443 Queen St", this stunning north-east corner residence features a sleek and contemporary design, spanning across a generous 124sqm of open plan living. With minimal shared walls and floor-to-ceiling glass windows, the apartment is flooded with natural light and enjoys true crossflow ventilation. Indulge in an immersive view of the stunning Brisbane River and Story Bridge, with an expansive 32-linear-metre frontage that provides breathtaking views from all angles. The entertainer-style kitchen features high-end Miele appliances, stone benchtops, feature timber joinery, and an abundance of storage, providing the utmost comfort and elegance. The master bedroom is generous in size, featuring a large built-in robe and a double basin ensuite. A range of other premium elements complement this home and include dedicated storage cupboards, a spacious laundry and a naturally ventilated internal drying court for all your laundry needs. This apartment is truly one-of-a-kind, boasting a massive 124sqm in size and breathtaking views. The apartment even includes a large separate storage cage! Located on level 7, the full floor recreation deck offers a range of amenities for residents to enjoy. These include a resort-style 25-metre infinity edge pool with amazing views of the Brisbane River and Story Bridge, a private dining room with a commercial-grade kitchen, a fully equipped gym, yoga deck, BBQ areas and sun lounges. Enjoy easy access to Howard Smith Wharves, as well as an array of bars, restaurants, and shops that are all within walking distance.
