This elegant and captivating home blends timeless charm with tasteful additions over two light filled levels on the high side of one of Annandale's most desirable streets. Cherished by the current owner for almost 25 years, it offers the perfect balance of space, period style and indoor/outdoor flow, including a unique split level teenagers' retreat, the flexibility of an optional home office and a sizeable courtyard at the rear for entertaining where you can also securely park the car. Complete with DA-approved plans to redesign the upper level if desired, the home needs nothing done and is ideally positioned for enjoying all the benefits that come with living just moments from the heart of the village and with easy access into the city. High ceilings, f/boards and fireplaces Modern kitchen incl. dishwasher, gas Spacious living area & separate dining Four beds with walk-in robe to main Teenagers' retreat including loft room Option of home office on ground floor Superb flow through for entertaining Bathroom on each level, one has bath Dual purpose courtyard/secure parking Parking has auto garage door and RLACafes, shops and transport all nearby Just 650m to Annandale Public School Mins to bay foreshores and Tramsheds 233 Young Street – Space and character
