Discover 'Glencoe', a timeless treasure nestled in the serene village of Chatsworth Island. Built in 1910, this iconic stately home set along the banks of the Mighty Clarence River lined with massive gnarly trees, blends historical allure with modern sophistication. Once the heart of a bustling riverside trading town, Chatsworth has transformed into a peaceful haven where nature's tranquillity prevails. Today, 'Glencoe' stands as a testament to its rich history, having been meticulously preserved and thoughtfully renovated to offer the comforts of contemporary living. Enter through a solid wooden door to explore the spacious interiors, where the past meets the present. High 11-foot ceilings accentuate three generous bedrooms, including a grand master with an ensuite and walk-in robe. The home boasts two elegantly restored bathrooms and a modern kitchen equipped with every convenience, ensuring a seamless blend of style and functionality. Air conditioned living spaces are adorned with ornate fireplaces and polished floors, reflecting the home's historic charm. French doors open to a sunlit back deck, overlooking an acre of lush gardens ideal for growing vegetables, fruit trees, or enjoying the simple pleasures of rural life just a short stroll to the local school. Experience tranquil river views from the classic front veranda or enjoy alfresco dining on the back deck, amidst the gentle whispers of dolphins journeying upriver. The property also features solar panels on a large shed, providing ample space for four vehicles and recreational toys, with a boat ramp nearby for fishing and water sports enthusiasts. Situated just minutes from Maclean, a short drive to Yamba, many beautiful beaches, and National Parks; 'Glencoe' offers the perfect balance of historical elegance and modern living. Whether seeking a forever home or a unique holiday retreat, this captivating residence invites you to be part of its ongoing story. Schedule a viewing today and let 'Glencoe' welcome you to a new chapter in one of Northern NSW's most picturesque and sought after settings.
