Nestled amidst the tranquil beauty of Caveside, Tasmania, 235 Pool Road stands as a beacon of comfort and charm. This splendid house is perfect for retirees seeking a peaceful haven, investors looking to expand their portfolio, or families dreaming of an idyllic rural lifestyle. Upon arrival, the first thing that captures your attention is the breath-taking mountain and rural vistas that envelop this 3-acre property. Just 20 minutes from the bustling town of Deloraine, it offers the perfect balance between serenity and convenience. This house isn't just a dwelling; it's a home designed for the life you've been imagining. The grounds are expansive, presenting an ideal setting for a pony or a couple of sheep to roam freely, while the well-tended orchard promises the delight of fresh fruits right at your doorstep. The home itself boasts an impressive open-plan living area with a beautifully renovated kitchen at its heart. A dishwasher and abundant storage make the space both practical and stylish. Each of the three bedrooms features built-in robes, with the master bedroom benefiting from a private ensuite. The main bathroom, equipped with both bath and shower, caters to the needs of family and guests alike. Creature comforts are ensured with the installation of a reverse cycle split system, keeping the Tasmanian climate at bay not to mention double glazed windows throughout. The undercover deck area surrounding the home invites alfresco living and year-round entertainment. Additional amenities include metered power, available internet connection, and more than four garages complemented by an outdoor games room, storage, and workshop space. Live the life you've longed for at 235 Pool Road, where the serenity of country living meets the convenience of modern amenities. Your Tasmanian retreat awaits.
