

236 Bourke Street, Darlinghurst, NSW 2010

McGrath

Sold House

Wednesday, 31 January 2024

236 Bourke Street, Darlinghurst, NSW 2010

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 4

Parkings: 1

Area: 122 m2

Type: House

Mark Foy
0280932200

Dave Ashby
0415890701

Contact agent

A welcoming surprise of light-filled and generous modern interiors are revealed behind the classic facade of this attractive Victorian terrace. Stylishly redesigned and upgraded to offer a quality low-maintenance living space over four levels, it features a range of smart designer finishes and a layout that is ideal for in/outdoor entertaining. This is the quintessential Darlinghurst abode and is very centrally located amid the area's vibrant cafe scene with shops, dining and city transport just footsteps from the front door.- Light and airy open interiors feature formal and casual living areas- Ultra-private entertainment courtyard plus an undercover BBQ patio- An oversized lock-up garage with a self-contained studio at the rear- Lower-level lounge room or fourth bedroom that leads outdoors- A generous entire-floor master with walk-in wardrobe and ensuite- Quality modern kitchen with gas cooking, dishwasher and breakfast bar- Air-conditioning, LED lighting, gas fireplace and ducted vacuuming