Opportunities to purchase unique properties like this are few and far between. The old St James Anglican Church is located in the picturesque rural township of Hill End and boasts not one but two buildings on the property. If you have a great imagination and are up for a project, then this is going to be right up your alley. The second building is an old bank building which was transported to the site many years ago. These buildings are situated on a large 2534m² corner block in the heart of Hill End.

Church Features:

- Stunning high ceilings
- Hard wood timber floors
- Arched windows and dado panels
- Built in 1940

Bank House Features:

- Currently used as a dwelling
- Large open plan living space with wood fire and reverse cycle air conditioner
- Separate bedroom
- Small kitchenette
- A bathroom complete with shower and toilet and separate laundry.

The options and possibilities with this property are endless (STCA). Located just a short twenty-minute drive from the freeway at the foothills of the Baw Baw Mountain range and only 8 kms from the stunning Blue Rock lake and neighbouring township of Willow Grove. Let your imagination run free and take a look at this truly unique property.
