There is just something about an old Queenslander that just soothes the body and soul. The mountain views that surround this property, are just amazing and you can watch the cattle grazing in the distance. The location is captivating. From every window of the house, is greenery to look at. The home has had some renovations completed, which has created this unique home. The difference is in the details. The polished timber floors are very eco-friendly and stunning! The floors have been finished off with a non-toxic product. There are also other features like, french doors, a sunroom which would make a great home office, and then there is the vibe of the retro kitchen. - 4 bedrooms + sunroom - Master bedroom with wall-to-wall robe - Bathroom with new vanity and toilet - 2 toilets - Lounge room - Dining room - Retro kitchen - Reverse-cycle air-con plus new fans - Separate laundry / mud room - Covered outdoor entertainment area - Large storage room - Fully fenced house yard for kids and pets - Perimeter of block fully fenced - Original horse stables - Original dairy milking shed - 2 troughs - Brand new roof - Garden shed - Fruit trees This is an inspiring home with heart. Just open the windows and doors to connect with nature. The home is located just 15 mins south-west of Beaudesert.
