Peacefully positioned adjacent Brighton Public Golf Course, this impeccable one-owner home is an inviting and unique setting of low maintenance ease and unwavering comfort, all matched by a low-traffic Brighton East address. Ready to welcome its next lucky custodians while dishing up plenty of scope for some further modern enhancements should you choose to do so, the two-storey accommodation is spacious and oriented to capture both golf course views and glorious northerly sunshine throughout the day. Among its highlights are a formal lounge and dining room with alfresco access, a timeless kitchen with Bosch dishwasher and copious amounts of storage plus a versatile family room. Tucked away upstairs are the three generous bedrooms, including the ensuited master with two sets of built-in robes. Also offered are a bright shared bathroom, two powder rooms (one on each level), a large laundry with tumble dryer, ducted heating/cooling, split systems, ceiling fans, alarm and auto double garage. Within an easy stroll of St Leonard's and Haileybury colleges, this blue-ribbon locale is also just moments to Hampton St shops & restaurants, Dendy Park, bus stops and the area's magnificent beaches. It is also in the sought-after Brighton Secondary College zone.
