The Laurels Retirement Village centres around a 150 year old mansion and stunning botanic gardens in scenic Mount Barker in the Adelaide Hills, 37km south-east of Adelaide. The historic mansion has been fully and exquisitely restored providing an outstanding community centre for residents. Our community facilities include a library, residents' workshop and hair dressing salon as well as areas for residents to enjoy their busy social calendar. Residents participate in a range of organised activities which include bowls tournaments, table tennis, sausage sizzles, happy hours, entertainment presentations, movies and a Sunday Roast. Don't miss out! Call our friendly and helpful sales team today and organise a personal tour of the villa and village! Internal images are indicative only.
