Discover Hamptons-style living at 24 Albert Street, situated in the serene Foreshore Estate in Coomera. This property exudes charm and elegance, with a design that encapsulates low-maintenance living while offering all the comforts of a high end home. Upon entering, you are welcomed into a refined interior featuring four bedrooms and two bathrooms. The master bedroom serves as a sanctuary with its private ensuite, offering secluded luxury. Each room is thoughtfully designed to combine functionality with aesthetic appeal. The heart of the home is an open-plan area, where ducted air conditioning and built-in surround sound speakers create an ideal setting for entertaining and relaxation. The kitchen, stylish and efficient, is equipped with modern appliances and smart storage solutions, making it a delight for culinary activities. The outdoor area of the home is a testament to the Hamptons style, with a beautifully designed low-maintenance backyard and a stunning saltwater pool, providing a private oasis for relaxation and entertainment. Nestled within Foreshore Estate, the residence enjoys close proximity to essential amenities, including top-tier schools like Foxwell State Secondary College and Picnic Creek State School, as well as shopping centers like Woolworths and Westfield Coomera. The locale is perfect for those who appreciate the balance of community and privacy, with nearby parks and the picturesque Coomera River offering abundant outdoor activities. 24 Albert Street presents a rare opportunity to own a piece of Hamptons-style elegance in Coomera, complete with the luxury of a saltwater pool and the convenience of ducted air conditioning. This home is a perfect blend of style, comfort, and practicality, ideal for those seeking a quality lifestyle in a peaceful setting.
