Step into grandeur at this majestic double-storey residence, masterfully combining classic design with modern luxury. Nestled on a vast 995 square metre parcel of land, this palatial home welcomes you with a stately facade, exuding an aura of sophistication that continues throughout its spacious interiors. Boasting five spacious bedrooms with the possibility of a sixth bedroom and three beautifully crafted bathrooms, this home is perfectly designed to accommodate the dynamic lifestyle of a large or growing family with exceptional ease and grace, offering both luxurious living and abundant space. Step into an inviting atmosphere in the expansive formal lounge on the ground floor, an ideal space for hosting guests or enjoying quiet evenings. Following on is a dedicated dining area, leading seamlessly into the heart of the home: an open-plan family room. This central living space is anchored by a cozy fireplace, creating a perfect backdrop for relaxation or social gatherings. The kitchen is a blend of functionality and style, equipped with ample storage and contemporary Bosch appliances, making it a chef's delight. With its strategic layout, the area encourages both culinary adventures and family time, highlighted by natural light streaming through large windows, enhancing the warm, welcoming environment. The home offers a tranquil sanctuary with five bedrooms, including a lavish master suite with a walk-in robe and ensuite, providing a secluded escape from the bustling communal spaces below. Two versatile ground-floor rooms, one of which can double as a home office and the other a dedicated working from home space, enhance the functional layout. Every room is thoughtfully equipped with built-in robes, ensuring ample storage for an organised and spacious environment. Additional features include a large garage with extra space for storage or a workshop, a dedicated laundry room, and lush outdoor areas complete with a shed for tools or extra storage. The property's close proximity to St. Raphaels Primary, Preston West Primary, Preston Station, Preston Market and just steps from the Number 11 Tram Route, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a blend of lifestyle and convenience in Preston's vibrant community.
