Karrikesh is a former church in a heavenly location that has been converted into a Moroccan inspired holiday home that receives wonderful reviews from all who stay. Located only a 2 minute walk from the Karridale Crossroads General Store, café, post office & fuel stop that takes care of all your general needs while nearby Karridale Tavern, a place where locals & tourists alike gather to enjoy a cold beer, glass of the region's finest wines and a delicious counter meal. The unique solid brick and tile home features stunning Tasmanian Oak timber floors throughout, high ceilings through the open plan living area with wood fire & reverse cycle a/c, bedroom with built-in-robe, bathroom with separate shower, spa bath & wc, kitchen with storage & modern appliances. The original church altar area is currently used as additional bed space & features large heavy full length drapes for privacy. You'll love how close the aquatic playgrounds of beautiful Hamelin Bay; the Blackwood River & Augusta are only a 10 minute drive away; as well as many of the region's tourist attractions nearby & Margaret River a 20 minute drive.
