Centrally located in "Old Binningup" this 857m² block is looking for new owners. With 33m of frontage and a gentle slope upwards towards the back boundary, the elevation of this block gives plenty of scope for an outlook across the treetops. There is plenty of room to accommodate a house and shed. Scheme water and power are available and septic tanks will be required. Secure this blank canvas and design your seaside home to suit your requirements. Located on the northern side of town, the area is surrounded by bush reserve and is an easy walk to the beach at the end of Allan Road. Be charmed by the peace and quiet & friendly community that exists in this lovely town.
