Inspect By Pre-Arranged Private Appointment On Thursdays & Saturdays between 2:30pm - 3:15pm Capturing uninterrupted water, Harbour Bridge and City Skyline views from its exclusive peninsula setting, sits 'Burnham Castle', an awe-inspiring residence originally built in 1887. Held by the same family for over 37 years, this prestigious estate presents a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for the discerning buyer to secure a slice of paradise. The Italianate mansion boasts a three-storey tower which is an architectural landmark and a dramatic feature along the Parramatta River. With extensively established gardens & grounds, the house has historic significance, and is well known locally for being built by Oscar Schulze, an engineer, and occupied by German Consul General, Dr Georg Imer in 1910. Privately set on a remarkable 2,346 sqm approx., its distinguished period features reveal a sense of old-world grandeur across three sprawling levels, with a unique selection of formal dining and living spaces ready for entertaining. The property with a commanding 30 metre approx. wide private beach frontage presents a magnificent setting for family gatherings, complete with a swimming pool and full-sized tennis court. The entire ground level offers private accommodation for guests, parents, or teenagers, while a separate self-contained apartment with panoramic city skyline views provides an ideal retreat for intergenerational living. Flaunting a prestigious address, this incomparable residence is just 7km from the Sydney CBD, conveniently placed within moments of city ferries and bus transport, Gladesville and Hunters Hill shopping villages, Top Ryde City and leading schools.
