Discover the perfect blend of style and comfort in this smartly presented two bedroom plus study cottage. Freshly painted and with revitalised gardens, this cute-as-a-button home marries classic appeal with modern conveniences, making it an ideal choice for first-time homebuyers, a small family or investors. The home's enchanting street appeal, highlighted by its timeless facade, invites you into a space where high ceilings and warm timber floorboards echo the property's rich history. The thoughtful layout features a gas-equipped kitchen, and separate living and dining areas, creating a welcoming environment for both entertaining and everyday living. Both bedrooms are comfortably sized, and the additional study provides a quiet space for work or creativity. The expansive rear yard, with its flat, manicured lawns, offers a safe haven for children and pets to play, alongside an alfresco deck where adults can unwind and enjoy the outdoors. Douglas Street is just 1500m from Jesmond Central shopping centre, 2.7km from the University of Newcastle and an easy commute to the city and freeway via link roads.
