Centrally located on a pleasant street right in the heart of Burnside, surrounded by local parks and playgrounds, schools and shops, this stunning four-bedroom home has raised the bar in modern family living. Sitting on a comfortable 582sqm block, it boasts multiple luxurious living areas, a double garage with drive through access, and a sophisticated covered entertaining area that is bound to impress. Step beyond its picturesque frontage and you'll be greeted with an elegant and immaculately presented interior, with warm timber flooring and plenty of natural lighting providing a pristine ambiance. Head beyond the private front-facing living room and you'll quickly become enamoured with the bright atmosphere of the core kitchen, dining, and family room area. Ultimately spacious and well-connected, this space is well served by a modern kitchen with a large stone-top island and breakfast seating; a 900mm gas cook-top; easy service to the outdoor entertaining area; and a butler's pantry. Bedrooms are well sized and spaced evenly throughout the home, each featuring built-in wardrobes, with a walk-in wardrobe and ensuite to the master. We must also highlight the wonderful, pergola-shaded patio entertaining area. Large and versatile, it appreciates a privacy and intimacy that makes it perfect for the family that loves to entertain, whether its birthdays, barbecues, and more! It also spills right out into a magnificently manicured backyard, complete with lush grass and a large garden shed. Features include: 1. Land size - 582 square meters 2. Walking distance to parks, playgrounds and public transport; Brookside college and just minutes to Burnside and Caroline Springs shopping centres. 3. Double garage with internal and drive through access. 4. Multiple living areas allow for family members to retreat to their own quiet spaces 5. Exceptional pergola-shaded entertaining area, perfect for hosting friends and family 6. Ducted heating and cooling plus additional split system air conditioning to family, master bedroom. This property is head and shoulders above its contemporaries, and it's easy to see why. To join the open inspection for this property before it goes to auction, be sure to give us a call today.
