

24 Fulton Street, Armadale, Vic 3143

Sold House

Monday, 4 September 2023

24 Fulton Street, Armadale, Vic 3143

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Andrew James
0395090411

Lauchlan Waterfield
0395090411

Contact agent

This elegant north-facing town residence's classically inspired design, generous proportions, quality finishes and two outdoor areas create a tranquil low-maintenance sanctuary with its own street frontage perfectly positioned opposite Toorak Park. From the moment you step inside, you'll be captivated by the abundance of natural light and stunning views of the parkland just outside your door. Prepare to be spoiled on the ground level, where a master bedroom awaits with its own walk-in wardrobe and ensuite bathroom access, while a second bedroom with built-in robes, features French doors to a private decked courtyard perfect for hosting guests. As you ascend to the first level, lovely wooden floors guide you through the open-plan living and dining area, deliberately designed to soak in sunlight from every angle. The living area opens up to a sun-drenched north-facing balcony, complete with a retractable power awning. Picture yourself unwinding here, taking in the views of Toorak Park and Victory Square reserve right before your eyes. The dining area is separated by a generously sized entertainer's kitchen, equipped with European appliances and stone benchtops, making every meal preparation a delight. This inviting home doesn't stop there. Discover a second powder room, ducted heating, reverse cycle air-conditioning, and a secure off-street car space accessed via a roller door in the rear courtyard, ensuring comfort, convenience, and peace of mind. The security entrance and ample storage throughout add an extra layer of practicality. Superbly located just a stone's throw away from High Street shops, tram access, Toorak Station, and the vibrant Beatty Avenue, this is the ultimate location to live life to the fullest.