Boasting a warm and inviting entry, this family home is a true haven for those seeking comfort, convenience, and the allure of coastal tranquility. The master bedroom at the front of the home features a built-in robe for ample storage. Two additional bedrooms provide comfortable spaces for the entire family. Embrace the heart of the home - an updated kitchen adorned with neutral tones, equipped with a gas stove, generous bench space, and overhead cupboards for all your culinary needs. Step into the modernised family bathroom, offering a vanity, screened shower, and toilet. Convenience is key, with a handy second toilet discreetly located off the laundry. Built of double brick in 1952, this timeless home exudes character and durability. With an expansive 650sqm of land, the property provides ample space for family enjoyment. A large entertainment area beckons for memorable BBQ gatherings with friends, while the spacious lawned area ensures endless playtime for the kids. For the avid car enthusiast or those with recreational vehicles, the property offers a shed, heaps of undercover parking, providing convenience and security. Perfectly positioned, the residence is close to historical Port Adelaide and cosmopolitan Semaphore offering a blend of heritage and modern amenities. Enjoy easy access to transportation, a short stroll to the beach, Largs Bay shopping precinct, and the esteemed Largs Bay Primary School. Opportunities like this don't last long - seize the chance to own your piece of seaside paradise in Largs North.
