For those looking to downsize but don't want to compromise on quality, living space or location, then this immaculate, Torrens Title villa home makes perfect sense. Superbly positioned in the highly sought-after Crestwood estate, with a picturesque reserve outlook, it is within easy reach of shops, beaches and two golf courses. Upon entry, you will be pleasantly surprised by the sense of space on offer. The air-conditioned living area features a large kitchen/ dining zone that opens to a private rear courtyard. There is a well-sized lounge room that flows out the covered front deck area overlooking the beautifully landscaped gardens. Two large bedrooms both feature large built-in robes and in addition to a large main bathroom, there is a second shower and toilet in the laundry. - Modern well-appointed kitchen with plenty of bench space - Main bedroom features generous built-in-robe - Large single garage with remote door and internal access - Well-maintained home inside and out - Desirable address, set amidst quality homes - Lawns and garden maintenance included
