THE PROPERTY Reflecting a perfect combination of period styling and contemporary indulgence, this sprawling two-storey residence is certain to impress. Captivating interiors are a highlight, with soaring ceilings and wall-to-wall windows creating a luxurious sense of space and light in the vast open plan living zone. Stunning bi-fold doors reveal an expansive covered deck which extends across the length of the home, perfectly placed for easy entertaining while you take in the magnificent views. The resident chef will adore the crisp white cabinetry, premium appliances and central island with cooktop in the sparkling kitchen. Abundant accommodation includes an elegant master complete with spacious spa ensuite, with three additional ground floor bedrooms serviced by the chic family bathroom. Privately placed on the lower level alongside a bathroom and plush rumpus room, the fifth bedroom offers an ideal teenagers' retreat. Glass doors open out to the vast paved patio overlooking the resort-style kidney shaped pool and spa, with a pool house adding to the allure.
