Nestled in the prestigious coastal enclave of Jindalee, 24 Maritime Drive beckons with its bespoke charm and unrivaled views of the ocean, bushland, and inland vistas. This luxurious one-of-a-kind residence, perched in an elevated location, promises a lifestyle of sophistication and tranquility. A short stroll leads to the beach, Jindalee Beach Cafe, beachside walks, cycle tracks, and meticulously landscaped parks, ensuring a seamless blend of nature and convenience. The property stands as a testament to architectural innovation, utilizing the highest quality materials and finishes. Embracing the laid-back West Australian lifestyle, the home exudes a welcoming aura, inviting residents to revel in relaxation and good times. Spanning an impressive 386 sqm (approx) on a large, elevated 630 sqm block, this property boasts a grand street presence, hinting at the remarkable 5-bedroom, 5-bathroom dwelling within. Ascending to the upper floor, breathtaking ocean views greet you from the balcony, upstairs living area, and the master bedroom. The master suite, a sanctuary of coastal elegance, features a coffered ceiling, built-in seating, shelves, and plantation shutters. The ensuite master bathroom showcases floor-to-ceiling tiles, double vanities with 40mm stone benchtops, a freestanding bath, a walk-in shower, and a separate toilet, culminating in a spacious walk-in wardrobe. Adjacent to the master suite, the upstairs living space (parents retreat) boasts a kitchenette/bar area, perfect for enjoying a drink while relishing the elevated balcony's Indian Ocean sunset views. A spacious ensuite bedroom with a double sliding wardrobe completes the upper level. The ground floor presents a large home theatre with coffered ceilings, LED lighting, and designer wallpaper, offering a cinematic escape. The open-plan living space with coffered ceilings seamlessly connects the living, dining, and kitchen areas. The stylish kitchen, featuring a 40mm waterfall edge stone benchtop island, Bosch stainless steel appliances, and a scullery with additional storage, becomes the heart of family gatherings. Downstairs accommodates three spacious bedrooms, each equipped with double sliding wardrobes, making it ideal for teenagers or extended families. Two bedrooms share a beautiful family bathroom with a bath, shower, and vanity, while the third bedroom enjoys the convenience of a private ensuite. The laundry, thoughtfully designed with 40mm stone benchtops, ample cupboard space, and a large linen cupboard, adds practicality to daily living. The outdoor oasis of 24 Maritime Drive is a retreat in itself, boasting a sparkling saltwater pool, undercover alfresco, cabana, and spa pool. The resort-style backyard, featuring low-maintenance finishes and an enclosed outdoor bathroom, offers the perfect setting for entertaining friends and family. The front of the property mirrors the rear's attractive low-maintenance design, with a spacious double garage and ample off-street parking. Extras and upgrades abound, including ducted reverse cycle air conditioning, solar panels, security cameras, high ceilings, skirting boards, trio cornice, designer lighting, quality flooring, window treatments, and luxurious 40mm stone benchtops. This residence is not just a home; it's a testament to opulence, comfort, and the West Australian dream. Discover a life of luxury at 24 Maritime Drive, where every detail is a statement of refined living.
