Calling all tradies, renovators, builders, and anyone with some serious heavy machinery! This is a real one of a kind property in Venus Bay, boasting an incredible 1577sqm in size, with an existing 'dwelling' onsite. There will be a huge clean-up required both around the building, and of the site itself. The 'dwelling' seems to have a fairly solid Besser Block style lower level, and it could be worth exploring if this and the subfloor may be salvagable. Otherwise, knockdown and rebuild and make use of potentially some of the most amazing distant views available in Venus Bay! Call or email us today prior to visiting the site, and for more information.
