Your Mountain Sanctuary awaits! Unparalleled views with dual living layout!

Situated on a generous quarter acre block with commanding 180 degree views over the Gold Coast, rests this immaculate home that simply exudes warmth and character at every turn! Creating the perfect balance of country charm and modern practicality, you can tell from the moment you step inside this home that no expense has been spared in its upkeep and improvements. The ingenious layout of the home lends itself to the traditional family lifestyle, whilst still offering an internal dual living arrangement for those of you with extended family or guests. With the 4th bedroom currently converted to a self-contained kitchenette with separate external access, guests or family can come and go as they please with no intrusion to the main household.

The ultra modern kitchen forms the centrepiece of the home, and comes equipped with stone benches, induction cooking and modern appliances, all flowing effortlessly onto the surrounding living and dining areas to compliment the family practicality.

Even with so much on offer in the home, your wow moment truly arrives as you step out to the large fully covered deck and witness the breathtaking views this property provides. With an uninterrupted outlook right out to the coastline, you will find yourself simply standing in awe taking in the scenery from your new sanctuary.
