Discover the perfect blend of style and convenience in this stunning four-bedroom, two-bathroom residence. Boasting an ensuite in the master bedroom, this home is designed for comfort with air conditioning throughout. Indulge in relaxation with a sparkling swimming pool and a charming entertainment area, ideal for hosting family and friends. Experience the ease of parking with a double remote-controlled garage, and enjoy the luxury of a walk-in robe in the master suite. The main bathroom features a delightful bath and double vanity, adding a touch of sophistication. Organisational needs are met with an internal laundry that includes ample storage space. This home also offers a separate study nook for your work or study needs. The heart of the house is the open-plan dining and living area, adjacent to an island kitchen bench, perfect for casual meals and gatherings. Situated directly opposite Zuccoli Primary School, this location is ideal for families. The outdoor space is designed for low maintenance, allowing more time to enjoy your home and less on upkeep. Nestled in a slightly elevated position, from the backyard of the property you can see views over neighboring rooftops towards bushland, providing a picturesque backdrop to your daily life. Additional features include double gate side access, making it easy to manage larger items or projects. This home is not just a residence; it's a lifestyle choice for those seeking a combination of easy living and elegant comfort. To arrange a viewing call Wayne at Smith Real Estate NT on 0417 272 077.
