

24 Pine Avenue, Brookvale, NSW 2100

Sold House

Friday, 8 March 2024

24 Pine Avenue, Brookvale, NSW 2100

Bedrooms: 6

Bathrooms: 4

Parkings: 2

Area: 765 m2

Type: House

Jo Morrison
0299823553

Steve Witt
0299823553

Contact agent

The custom reinvention of this coastal beauty pays homage to the past while creating a wonderfully private and incredibly flexible residence, in a tucked away setting with panoramic views reaching the ocean to Manly, Curl Curl and Dee Why. Feel-good interiors are complemented by vintage design elements and modern finishes with multiple living areas that open seamlessly to an entertainer's garden oasis delivering a splash of tropical resort style magic. This versatile home is perfect for the young or multigenerational family, with a lower-level teen/in-law retreat and a separate granny flat/house with views to Manly and a separate entry, for dual living or income. Full of personality, this is a home that invites relaxation and stand out convenience placed within walking distance to shops, cafes, schools, Brookvale Oval, express CBD buses, close to Westfield Warringah Mall and a choice of beaches. - Light filled elevated setting, basks in coastal breezes- Views that captivate by day and transform at night- Enclosed landscaped front garden, charming facade- Interconnecting living/lounge and dining captures the views- Contemporary stone crafted island kitchen with Smeg appliances- Three restful bedrooms upstairs with built-ins are ideally separated- Lower-level rumpus plus fourth bedroom/teen retreat with wet-bar- Bi-fold doors flow to an all-weather alfresco entertainer's deck - Resort style pool with water features, pool-side cabana- Tropical gardens with tranquil water feature and koi pond- Double undercover carport plus ample off-street parking- Charming two bedroom granny flat with lower-level retreat boasting views to Manly and separate entry