

24 Robey Street, Maroubra, NSW 2035

House For Sale

Tuesday, 14 May 2024

24 Robey Street, Maroubra, NSW 2035

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 278 m2

Type: House

Dani Chahine
0283472277

Auction

Cherished period semi, impeccably & lovingly maintained over the last three decades by its owner preserving its original character & highly desirable period features. This single storey classic era full brick home is as solid today as the day it was built, with a bright & sunny Northern orientation. It features a spacious & functional floorplan flexible to meet today's modern living requirements, such as a home office & added storage/media zones. Sitting on a comfortable, level 278 sqm with a large private backyard & enclosed sunroom, perfect for young families or anyone seeking a home within an easy, level walk of shops and transport. Located in a desirable pocket close to all of Maroubra Junctions lifestyle amenities, with Pacific Square & Anzac Pde City Buses just a short stroll away. Easy access to Eastgardens & iconic Maroubra Beach.- Two double bedrooms, main with separate study room- Solid double brick construction- Generous living zones with separate dining room- Period features, picture rails, high ornate ceilings- Additional rear room perfect for home office - North-East facing level block, large rear sunroom- Off Street parking for up to 2 cars, long grassed front yard - Easy access to Pacific Square, City Buses, Schools & ParksLand size 278.2 sqm (approx.)