Nestled between the beach and town centre this captivating hidden gem with 5 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, and a separate studio space that offers endless possibilities. This property redefines the meaning of tranquillity and serenity. Property Highlights: • 4 Bedrooms (main residence) • 2 Bathrooms • Separate Workshop studio space, perfect for yoga, artist studio, or martial arts studio • Ancillary Dwelling: Ideal for guests or extended family • 3 pot belly wood fires • 2 x 90,000 liters water tanks • Lime washed interior walls • Solar Panels • A winter's creek runs through the property

Main Residence: As you step inside this remarkable home, you'll be immediately struck by the breathtaking beauty of the surrounding bushland. The wall-length expansive windows and high raked ceiling seamlessly blend the indoors with the natural world outside, offering stunning views of the bush valley. The open-plan living and kitchen space is a true focal point of the home. It's designed to be inviting and spacious, perfect for hosting gatherings with friends and family, or simply enjoying a cozy evening by the fireplace.

Separate Studio: The separate studio on the property is a versatile space that can cater to your individual passions and hobbies. This lovely original period wooden building on the property, with Jarrah floorboards and pressed tin walls could be used as an artist's studio, a yoga room, an office space or simply as a quiet retreat space.

Ancillary Dwelling: Additionally, there's a self-contained ancillary dwelling that provides a comfortable and private space for guests, potential rental income, or extended family members. It's the perfect touch to complete this unique retreat.

Surrounding Nature: The property is surrounded by 3.17 hectares of pristine bushland, ensuring your privacy and providing opportunities for exploration and outdoor activities. Wake up to the symphony of native birds, take peaceful walks through the tranquil forest, or simply relax on the expansive deck while enjoying your morning coffee. Don't miss the chance to make this hidden bush retreat in Margaret River your very own sanctuary. Embrace the serenity, relish in the natural beauty, and create memories that will last a lifetime.
