Built in the 1950s, the home remains predominantly original all set on a 673sqm block with an ideal North/West facing aspect and surrounded by leafy green tree and gardens. The home provides a dedicated living/lounge room space that flows into the kitchen area. The kitchen features an electric oven and stove top. There are three bedrooms and one bathroom and out to the rear of the home is an additional sun room. Location is the real draw card on this opportunity with being minutes to Dickson shops, Daramarlan College, Braddon's cafes, bars and restaurants and local transport. • Three bedrooms + one bathroom home • Additional sun room at the rear • Wall mounted heating • North/West facing aspect • Predominately original internal • Almost 100sqm of living • Amazing location with nearby schools, cafes, bars, shopping and local transport • The property does not comply with the ceiling insulation standards • Pets are welcome • Groups are welcome • 673sqm block • EER: Not known • Available Now Open for inspection times may be subject to change, please register or book an inspection to receive updated notifications.
