With five bedrooms plus a home-office, three bathrooms each with separate WC, and multiple living zones plus decks front and rear, this might just be Bayside's biggest family value! Stretched out across an expansive single-level, this ultra-accommodating family home has a bedroom for all the kids, a quiet wing for parents to hide away, and living zones for everyone to enjoy. Ready to entertain with a quiet formal lounge and expansive family living (both with deck-access), this inviting home has a hardworking multi-purpose room - currently floored to work as a gym. There's even more living outdoors with a huge north-facing entertainer's deck alongside a craftsman-built open-fireplace to fire up the party...and a pretty bench-seated covered deck for when it's time recover. Quality-finished with vast prestige appliance kitchen (complete with a massive dining-bench and a huge butler's pantry, the home features stylish fully-tiled 'separate facility' bathrooms to add to family harmony and stylish extras to add to family lifestyle. Featuring cool polished-concrete, sleek stone benchtops and warm bamboo floors, there's an abundance of storage including robes, family comfort with ducted heating, reverse-cycle air conditioning and fan-cooling.... plus a decorative fireplace for each main living zone; in the lounge with a warming faux-flame! Set in easy-care grounds with a hedged front garden for a pretty-perfect entry, a sunny north-facing playspace for the kids, and a tradie-friendly array of sheds, this great value family home even has an invaluable location in the heart of the park-precinct. No more than three blocks to both Peterson Reserve and Basterfield Park, a minute to Highett's hospitality, supermarket and station, and a minute more to Southland, this accommodating home puts family life in reach of Bayside lifestyle!
