The heart of this home is its spacious semi open-plan living area, which has been revived through a kitchen renovation. This renovation boasts stainless steel appliances, stone benchtops, generous storage and built-in banquette seating. Across from the entrance lies a well sized lounge room, adorned with a tasteful light grey and charcoal color palette, evoking a relaxed modern ambiance. Year-round comfort is assured with reverse cycle air conditioning. Three double bedrooms are served by a fully renovated bathroom complete with a luxuriously deep bathtub and separate shower. Outside, the home is enveloped by low-maintenance gardens, offering both privacy and security. An established hedge in the front yard provides seclusion, while the fenced backyard, equipped with a shed, ensures safety for children and pets. Conveniently situated near excellent local schools and the amenities of Kingston, this home promises a relaxed, convenient lifestyle.
