

24 Wilguy Crescent, Buderim, QLD, 4556

Sold House

Friday, 28 April 2023

McGrath

24 Wilguy Crescent, Buderim, QLD, 4556

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Vicki Stewart
0754508000

It's all about the location

Positioned on the prized northern escarpment and in one of Buderim's most tightly held enclaves, sits this spacious, solid brick and tile home on a prime 1454sqm land parcel. Offering views to Mount Ninderry and generously proportioned layout, this is the ideal opportunity for the astute purchaser to capitalise on this premium North facing position.

- Northerly aspect, one of Buderim's most prestigious addresses
- Rare 1454sqm land parcel, surrounded by quality homes
- Solid brick and tile construction
- Master with ensuite, walk-in robe, air conditioning
- Three further bedrooms, built-ins, new carpets, ceiling fans
- Open plan kitchen, walk-in pantry, separate dining
- Family bathroom with tub
- Expansive airconditioned and light-filled lounge, covered timber balcony overlooking pool and gardens
- Established trees and gardens, flat lawned areas
- Sparkling, oversized inground pool, with expansive timber decking
- Studio/multipurpose room or home office with separate access
- Single carport, undercroft storage, new driveway
- Option to subdivide (STCA)