This stunning four bedroom, two-bathroom residence on over ¼ acre captures the essence of the ideal forever home, with an ideal north-to-rear aspect showcasing breathtaking panoramic views capturing the Macedon Ranges and Mount Macedon. Designed to embrace the extraordinary views, the lounge and dining areas (with warming gas log fireplace) flow to the meals and living areas with wood fuelled heat transfer fireplace, surrounding the spacious kitchen with stainless steel Bosch dishwasher, wall-mount oven/grill, and electric cooktop. Outside, the decked covered outdoor entertaining area features frameless glass fencing to further enjoy the unobstructed mountain views and gorgeous rear garden outlook, with the perfectly landscaped 1,143m² (approx.) grounds surprisingly low maintenance! Four generous bedrooms are all fitted with extensive built-in robes, while the palatial main bedroom features a large ensuite. This truly special property also includes an integrated R/C double garage, side driveway for additional caravan/boat parking, ducted heating, reverse cycle air conditioning, ducted vacuum, 1.5kw solar system, 5 water tanks (tot. 9,800 litres), powered under-house storage/wine cellar, and more. Walking distance to Wyralla Reserve, it's also close to bus services, Gisborne township shops, vibrant cafés, leading schools, and picturesque parklands. This home offers a rare combo of convenience and serenity with quick freeway access making for an easy commute to Melbourne CBD, or just to explore this magical region and beyond.
