Its Addressed: Nestled on a sizeable 536sqm block with a desirable north-to-rear aspect, this charming family home offers endless potential for astute buyers in a location with excellent connectivity. Placed within a short walk of Parkmore Shopping Centre and Chandler Park Primary School, the updated property is move-in ready and perfect for savvy investors, while developers can capitalise on the generous land size and 15m frontage (STCA). Behind the easy care landscaped frontage and refreshed brick facade, the light-filled layout is enhanced by modern neutral tones and beautiful hardwood flooring, revealing a comfortable air-conditioned living room for relaxing and welcoming guests. Merging seamlessly, the spacious monochrome kitchen has been updated with an on-trend subway splashback, while the freestanding dual-fuel oven and ample storage cater to the needs of the aspiring chef. Promising peace and privacy, all three bedrooms are carpeted and generously proportioned with two featuring built-in robes, plus there's easy access to the full bathroom and separate w/c. Offering the opportunity to entertain and extend, the expansive rear features handy side access and a covered alfresco for summer socialising, gazing out to the grassy backyard, large garage and storage shed. Adding to the home's recent transformation, finishing touches include fresh paint and blinds throughout, security screen doors, LED downlights and front privacy fencing. Promising a lifestyle of ease for buyers seeking carefree convenience, Keysborough Secondary College and several glorious reserves are within a short stroll, while the property is also close to Yarraman Station and the Eastlink for seamless city commuting. Move in now, complete further renovations or develop the block (STCA), the choice is all yours. Contact us today for a priority inspection.
