Experience the captivating allure of Braeside Cottage, nestled on the edge of the Serpentine hinterland mere footsteps to the National Park where serenity meets the soothing embrace of the Serpentine River reserve. With rich riverbank soils spanning 1 acre of lush green landscape, you'll discover that this whimsical hideaway is a picture-perfect package you won't want to miss...

The Brief: This remarkable 1920s residence has undergone a stunning transformation, the owners embarked on a mission to create something truly special. A significant undertaking that took the house back to its timber frame, rebuilding it from the ground up and introducing innovative new spaces. Their vision was to protect the home's rich heritage while seamlessly integrating modern comforts, blending nostalgic charm with high-quality contemporary finishes. The result? A truly breathtaking restoration. No detail has been overlooked, from the meticulously crafted wood panelling and cornices that effortlessly catch your gaze - to the soaring high ceilings, decorative architraves, classic timber vanities with granite tops, sash windows and wide sweeping decked verandahs.

The Contemporary Cottage Lifestyle: Stepping inside Braeside Cottage, you'll immediately be captivated by the spaciousness and warmth that radiate from the timeless timber floors and high ceilings, pulling you further down the hallway and into the heart of this extraordinary home. Carefully extended living areas provide an abundance of space for the entire family, while still paying homage to the original features that make this residence truly unique. The open plan living and dining area, adorned with raked timber ceilings a wood fire, sets the stage for cozy comfort. The modern kitchen featuring stone bench tops and a delightful free-standing Smeg cooker, boasts extra storage in all the right places. Contemporary style converges with rustic charm, making it a haven for culinary delights.

The Accommodations: As you explore further, the master bedroom beckons with its own ensuite and a walk-in robe, offering a private sanctuary for relaxation. Just across the hall, a separate lounge room awaits, complete with a gas fireplace where you can unwind and escape into a world of tranquility. In the new wing of the house, spacious minor bedrooms provide ample space for restful slumbers. These rooms have been treated to a tasteful new bathroom, laundry with ample storage and a dedicated side entrance from the outside ensuring both comfort and practicality for family and visitors alike.

The Great Outdoors: Spilling out from the living area via glass sliding doors a sprawling timber deck awaits, providing the perfect setting for entertaining or immersing yourself in the splendour of the established gardens and towering trees that surround you. Step outside onto the enchanting wraparound verandas, where a sprawling deck awaits, providing the perfect setting for entertaining. Renewed driveways offer abundant parking space, ensuring convenience for you and your guests. And that's not all - two powered workshops (2x 6m x 9m) stand at the ready for those seeking a space for their treasured pastimes to indulge in endless possibilities. With so much open space left to utilize, you can put your personal touch on this idyllic property. Imagine adding a swimming pool, creating a thriving vegetable garden, or even establishing a charming chook pen - your dreams can become a reality in this haven of endless potential.

Location: Located in the heart of Serpentine, Braeside Cottage strikes the perfect balance between seclusion and proximity to local schools and amenities. Immerse yourself in the tranquility of this picturesque location, where timeless charm and modern luxury converge.
