Refreshed dual-level terrace in vibrant urban pocket, walk-to-everywhere setting Promising lifestyle excellence and ultra-convenience in a vibrant urban enclave, this recently refreshed terrace offers a superb home or investment opportunity in a walk-to-everywhere setting. Well-presented and brimming with natural light, it features freshly painted interiors with a combined living/dining area appointed with polished timber floorboards and high ceilings. The updated eat-in kitchen features gas cooking and ample cupboard storage, while interiors open out to a sunlit paved courtyard. Accommodation comprises three good-sized bedrooms plus attic. Two of which are appointed with built-in wardrobes and the main adjoins an enclosed balcony with stained glass windows. There is a bright and airy renovated bathroom, while adding further appeal is the flexible attic-storage/study space.
