Introducing 246 Burrowye Crescent, a grand and luxurious family home in the coveted Keilor neighbourhood. The property boasts a regal facade, complemented by a horseshoe driveway and captivating landscaped gardens that create a lasting first impression. The expansive and adaptable layout features a majestic formal lounge reminiscent of a grand ballroom, complete with soaring cathedral ceilings. Discover a highly versatile guest bedroom or study downstairs, complemented by convenient access to the adjacent third bathroom. The large, well-appointed kitchen is equipped with pristine Miele appliances and accompanied by two distinct dining areas. Indulge in moments of tranquility and relaxation with two additional living areas: a warm and inviting family room downstairs, and an expansive open retreat upstairs, both perfect for unwinding and entertaining. A highlight of this home is an amazing atrium that overlooks the serene Taylors Creek Reserve, providing a tranquil oasis within the residence. The expansive master bedroom features both a walk-in robe and built-in robes, along with a fully renovated ensuite that is bright and modern. Three additional double-sized bedrooms, accompanied by new carpets and blinds, providing comfortable accommodation for family and guests. Other standout features include two separate powder rooms, abundant natural light throughout the home, evaporative cooling system upstairs, ducted heating throughout, security doors and ducted vacuum system. Don't miss this opportunity to own a truly remarkable home in Keilor that represents the pinnacle of luxury living.
