Enjoy nature trails at the end of this quiet stretch of Banksia Street and create an incredibly peaceful, sought-after, setting for this delightful three bedroom residence. Freestanding with own private garden frontage on a compact parcel of land, this inviting mid-century home that's been updated where it matters most immediately overlooks expansive Ford Park while only metres away are the tranquil Darebin Creek Trail and coffee shops. The single-level interior on polished hardwood floorboards offers three overly generous bedrooms, built-in robes and a beautiful renovated bathroom featuring a fabulous freestanding bath, dual vanity and separate shower. A modernized kitchen is fully appointed with stainless-steel appliances and adjoins a meals area and living room where a gas log fireplace provides cozy winter warmth. Also includes a laundry area and split-system heating and cooling, while an alfresco patio soaks up the sunshine when entertaining guests. North-facing home near Ivanhoe's shopping and restaurant precinct, buses, train station, quality schools and the Austin Hospital.
