Nestled on 30 acres of tranquil bushland, this extraordinary property offers a unique and captivating lifestyle. Perched high on the hill, this traditional pole-framed house invites you to embark on a journey of serenity and peacefulness. Sensitively designed to rest seamlessly within the breathtaking natural setting, you can soak in 360-degree views of the sea and the bush. Inside, soaring raked ceilings and huge windows create an expansive and airy atmosphere, allowing the outside world to effortlessly flow in. Take in the sunset views as the wood combustion heater gently crackles away. On the main level, the open-plan living and dining space is welcoming and versatile for daily living and entertaining. Prepare delicious home-cooked meals in the charming farmhouse kitchen. Wide balconies gracefully connect you with your surroundings, beckoning you to indulge in moments of pure relaxation. There are four bedrooms on offer providing ample space for personal retreat and rejuvenation. Imagine soaking away your worries in the spa bath with views across the hills to the ocean. When the desire for exploration beckons, a short drive will transport you to the charming village of Cape Jervis, while South Australia's most pristine beaches await you a mere ten minutes away.
