The design, the details and the address each play their role in defining the outstanding appeal of this inviting modern residence - a home where the beauty of the indoor spaces is matched by balcony retreats and a backdrop with a north-facing aspect. A living/dining area created and crafted to capture the northern light includes an open-plan kitchen where the signature style of stone bench-tops, a central island and stainless steel appliances is complemented by the ideal storage capacity of a walk-in pantry while glass doors slide away to reveal the decked courtyard's lovely balance of privacy and sunshine - and established leafiness beyond the back fence. A downstairs bedroom and bathroom set the luxury level for two upstairs bedrooms, each with built-in robes and a substantial balcony, both sharing the dual vanity family bathroom. Heating, cooling and secure garage deliver comfort and convenience respectively to a home of evident character and calibre close to Williamstown Beach station, the beach itself and all the attractions that ensure bayside enjoyment.
