Welcome to your new sanctuary! Nestled on one of the most charming streets of Mount Pleasant, 24A St Michael Terrace is a timeless treasure, marrying classic elegance with contemporary comforts. Built in the 1950s, this home sits on a generous 492sqm strata allotment, boasting a generous frontage that invites you in. Positioned mere moments from Mount Pleasant Primary School, and with easy reach to Queens Road conveniences, parks, transport links, Westfield Booragoon, and the scenic riverside, convenience is at your doorstep. As you step inside, you'll immediately feel the inviting ambiance of this home, where comfort meets style. The layout effortlessly connects to two secluded outdoor entertaining spots: a verdana front courtyard and a sheltered rear deck. Indoors, discover three spacious bedrooms alongside a smaller fourth room, ideal for a nursery or home office. A tastefully renovated bathroom elevates the sense of luxury, while the modern kitchen, equipped with premium appliances and Australian Oak wooden benchtops, serves as a functional yet elegant centerpiece. From here, the bright living and dining area beckons, offering tranquil views of the serene front yard. High ceilings, decorative features, large wooden windows, and solid timber flooring add character and charm throughout the home, creating a space you'll truly enjoy. With its timeless appeal and modern comforts, this home is ready for its next chapter. Don't miss out on the chance to make it yours!
